

Sunday 11th March – Fourth Sunday of Lent (Laetare Sunday)

Entrance Antiphon Isaiah 66:10-11

Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her Be joyful, all who were in mourning; exult and be satisfied at her consoling breast.

First Reading 2 Chronicles 36:14-16,19-23

Psalm Psalm 136(137):1-6

O let my tongue cleave to my mouth if I remember you not!

By the rivers of Babylon there we sat and wept, remembering Zion; on the poplars that grew there we hung up our harps.

O let my tongue

For it was there that they asked us, our captors, for songs, our oppressors, for joy 'Sing to us,' they said, 'one of Zion's songs.'

O let my tongue

O how could we sing the song of the Lord on alien soil? If I forget you, Jerusalem, let my right hand wither!

O let my tongue

O let my tongue cleave to my mouth if I remember you not, if I prize not Jerusalem above all my joys!

O let my tongue

Second Reading Ephesians 2:4-10

Gospel Acclamation John 3:6

Glory and praise to you, O Christ! God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son: everyone who believes in him has eternal life. Glory and praise to you, O Christ!

Gospel John 3:14-21

Communion Antiphon

Jerusalem is built as a city bonded as one together. It is there that the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord, to praise the name of the Lord.

Please note two up-coming events

Advance notice of, firstly, Rosary on the Coast, to take place on Sunday, 27th April, at 3 p.m. This is an event being organized throughout Britain, following the success of the idea elsewhere. The bishop writes: "This is a day of pilgrimage and prayer for the re-flourishing of our Faith, for the grace to build a culture of life and for true peace to reign ... With our diocese being almost surrounded by sea and having such a beautiful coast and coastal path, this is surely something that we can all respond to. It would be good if parishes on or near the coastline, could arrange for parishioners to gather at the coast that afternoon with these intentions." The website is www.rosaryonthecoast.co.uk Secondly, the week-long Cornish Pilgrimage to Walsingham is already being organized. Information about it, including costs, will be found on the church notice boards. More information is to be had by 'phoning Christine at 01736 362619.

The next Great Big Diocesan Quiz is due to take place on the evening of Friday 13th April

For those of you who may not be aware of this event, the idea is that the same quiz takes place across the diocese in a number of parishes/schools/homes with funds raised for the Catholic Children's Society. The team with the highest score at the end of the night will be crowned 'Diocesan Champions'!

The Society will provide the questions and answers for the evening plus all the necessary paperwork for the evening including posters, picture rounds and answer sheets. Hopefully this takes out the worse element of organising a quiz and allows organisers plenty of time to book a venue, find a question master and gather as many competing teams (of six) as possible.

Do you know of anyone in your community willing to organise a quiz? Everyone is welcome to take part. It doesn't have to be a big affair, even just a few teams in someone's lounge will make a quiz night – remember it is the team with the highest score at the end of the night which will be crowned champions!

Please let me know if you or anyone you know would like to take part. See the Poster in the Porch. Many thanks for your help and support. Claire Warren.

CONCERT in aid of Cara Coweth Water, Sierra Leone to be held in St Mary's Catholic Church, Helston Friday 23rd March 2018 at 7.30 pm Admission free. For further details and information about this local, registered charity, please see poster and leaflets at the back of the church.
