

Sunday 11th February – Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Antiphon

Psalm 30:3-4

Be my protector, O God,
a mighty stronghold to save me.
For you are my rock, my stronghold!
Lead me, guide me, for the sake of your name.

First Reading

Leviticus 13:1-2,44-46

Psalm

Psalm 31(32):1-2,5,11

You are my refuge, O Lord; you fill me with the joy of salvation.

Happy the man whose offence is forgiven,
whose sin is remitted.

O happy the man to whom the Lord
imputes no guilt, in whose spirit is no guile.

You are my refuge, .....

But now I have acknowledged my sins;
my guilt I did not hide.

I said: 'I will confess my offence to the Lord.'

And you, Lord, have forgiven the guilt of my sin.

You are my refuge, .....

Rejoice, rejoice in the Lord,
exult, you just!

O come, ring out your joy,
all you upright of heart.

You are my refuge, .....

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 10:31-11:1

Gospel Acclamation

Ephesians 1:17,18

Alleluia, alleluia! May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our mind,
so that we can see what hope his call holds for us.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 1:40-45

Communion Antiphon

Psalm 77: 29-30

They ate and had their fill,
and what they craved the Lord gave them;

News from St John's School

The deadline is fast approaching for families to apply for a Reception place in a primary school for next September 2018. For those wishing to apply to St John's (Catholic and non-Catholic families), the online admission form is at www.cornwall.gov.uk/education-and-learning/schools-and-colleges/school-admissions

From Fran Lobban (head of religious education in St John's School) we hear that the recent quinquennial inspection of religious education in St John's (a Catholic supplement to the Ofsted inspection), produced very good results indeed for the school. Surveying the Catholic life of the school, teaching and learning in religious instruction, and worship, the inspectors graded St John's 'strong good, with many outstanding Features'. Noting that the school was praised for its relationship to the parish and the local community, Fran writes: "We would like to take this opportunity to thank our whole parish for the ways in which you support our school: from those parishioners who are able to be actively involved in our governing body or supporting children's reading etc., to those of you who support our events, our charity fundraisers and by remembering us in your prayers." The parish takes this opportunity to congratulate the staff of John's for its achievement and thank it for all that it does for our children.
